

Splashing Lines in the Creek

Sugar Creek Presents:

A Men's Retreat for Fly Fishing Theology

April 24-26, 2015

Come on down to the "Creek" – we'll teach you about fly fishing and do some discussion about stewardship of God's beautiful creation.

Guest presenter is the Rev. Don Wisner. This is no small fish – this guy has been around and knows how to throw a line so a REAL fish will bite on it! He has guided flying in Idaho for REAL fish. He teaches at Luther Seminary and has also been a campus pastor at UW Eau Claire. Pastor Don is a fun guy and really knows how to teach a guy to throw a line.

If this is your first time fly fishing, come to the valley and learn the art. If you have some experience, come to hone your skills. If you don't have a fly rod, we'll get you one to use. We'll catch some nice trout and throw them back for the next person to catch!

We begin Friday evening at 7:00 at Sugar Creek and conclude at 11:00 Sunday morning. This is a great time for fathers and sons or men's groups from your congregation to come and enjoy the great outdoors!

$70—includes lodging, some pretty darn good food, program, and fly fishing lessons
